DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Climate Generation: A Will Steger Legacy values and respects its donors' right to privacy. It affirms that its fundraising practices protect against unauthorized use of its contributor lists.

Climate Generation utilizes donors' personal information such as names, mailing addresses and email addresses only for purposes of donor acknowledgement and/or when an individual voluntarily provides this information to join our mailing list. Climate Generation currently does not share donors' personal or contact information with third party organizations, but may at some point and will provide an opt-out feature at that time.

For purposes of individual donor acknowledgement, Climate Generation releases donor names, contact information and donation amounts for financial accounting purposes, with the exception of anonymous donors. Climate Generation strives to ensure that all donors who request acknowledgment receive appropriate acknowledgment in an orderly, timely and effective manner from the Climate Generation.

Visitors to the Climate Generation Web site (www.climategen.org) remain anonymous. Climate Generation does not require visitors to register or provide personal information to view the site. There are instances when site visitors are asked for additional information in order to provide requested services. For example, information will be requested when making an online donation to the Climate Generation so that the gift may be properly processed and receipted. Climate Generation's online donors choose the personal information that Climate Generation receives and can opt to remain anonymous. All credit card transactions are conducted over a secure server via the third party site, Donor Pro Merchant Services (www.donorpro.com). Climate Generation and its vendor, Donor Pro Merchant Services, does not store credit card information. Any credit card information provided on a pledge information is processed securely in our office and the credit card information is then shredded.

We use a number of web analytics products to optimize our website, including Google Analytics and Google Website Optimizer. These tools do not require our site visitors to identify themselves, and they do not provide us any personally identifiable information about our visitors that is not supplied voluntarily. Our goal in using analytics is to understand what parts of our website you like and which parts need work. We encourage you to not accept cookies when surfing our website.

Climate Generation also has a discontinue contact policy available on our website or by contacting our office so that donors can be removed from solicitation and other mailing lists. We follow the guidelines of the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.
